

UNC ASHEVILLE
CENTER FOR DIVERSITY EDUCATION

Dear Deborah,

There are two programs this week at the UNC Asheville Center for Diversity Education that I hope you will consider attending:

Tuesday, March 24

Witness to Selma with Rev. Clark Olsen

12:30, Mountain Suites, Highsmith Student Union, UNC Asheville

Rev. Olsen heeded the call of Dr. King to march in Selma on what came to be known as "turn back Sunday". He was with Rev. James Reeb at the time of his murder and death.

Wednesday, March 25,

Music of the Holocaust with Bandana Klezmer and Dr. Walter Ziffer

7:00 pm, Highsmith Student Union Alumni Hall, UNC Asheville

In commemoration of the 70th Anniversary of the liberation of the concentration camps, the Center for Diversity Education will host a musical program by Bandana Klezmer. Dr. Walter Ziffer will also share the connection of the Yiddish language to klezmer music and his liberation, along with that of his father, mother and sister, from three different slave labor and death camps.

Sincerely,

Deborah Miles
